

RANDIP SINGH JAGPAL

Mr. Randip Singh Jagpal, Joint Director, Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA) started his career as a direct recruit officer in National Insurance Company Limited in November, 1989. He held various positions in the National Insurance Company before being deputed to Insurance Regulatory Authority (present IRDA) in September, 1998. He was later on absorbed in IRDA in April, 2002 as Deputy Director.

In IRDA he has fourteen years experience in supervision and monitoring of insurance companies; drafting of regulations; implementing and monitoring compliance of the same; critically analyzing the performance of the insurance companies; undertaking inspections (on-site & off-site) of insurance companies in key areas of investment, finance & accounts, reinsurance, product pricing and market conduct; carrying out investigation into the affairs of insurance companies, insurance intermediaries, insurance brokers and agents. More than nine years in Risk Management, Underwriting & Claims Settlement in National Insurance Company Limited.

His academic qualifications include M.Sc. in Physics from Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi, M.Tech (Applied Optics) from Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi, MBA, Faculty of Management Studies, University of Delhi, Associate of Insurance Institute of India and Associate of Institute of Risk Management, London

He has won various awards which include award for standing First from Delhi Centre in the Associateship Paper on Chemistry & Electricity, The Neeraj Srivastava Memorial Prize for standing First in M.Sc. Physics and Chevening Fellowship by the Foreign & Commonwealth Office, UK